Our Republic

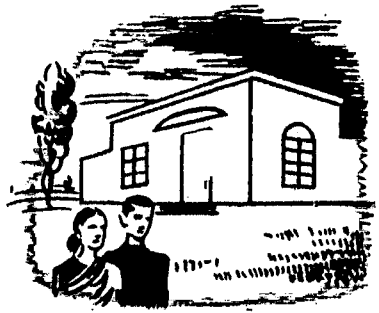
Directive Principles of State Policy
(The Constitution of India)



The provisions contained in this Part shall not be enforceable by any court, but the principles therein laid down are nevertheless fundamental in the governance of the country and it shall be the duty of the State to apply these principles in making laws.

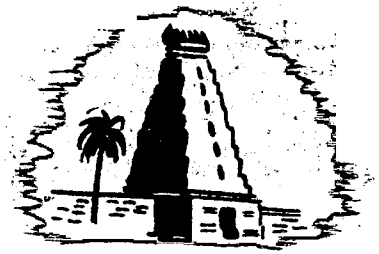
Promotion of Welfare of the People

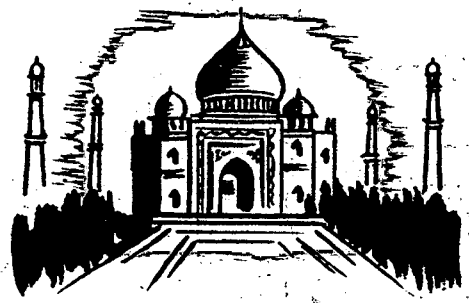
The State shall strive to promote the welfare of the people by securing and protecting as effectively as it may a social order in which justice, social, economic and political, shall inform all the institutions of the national life.

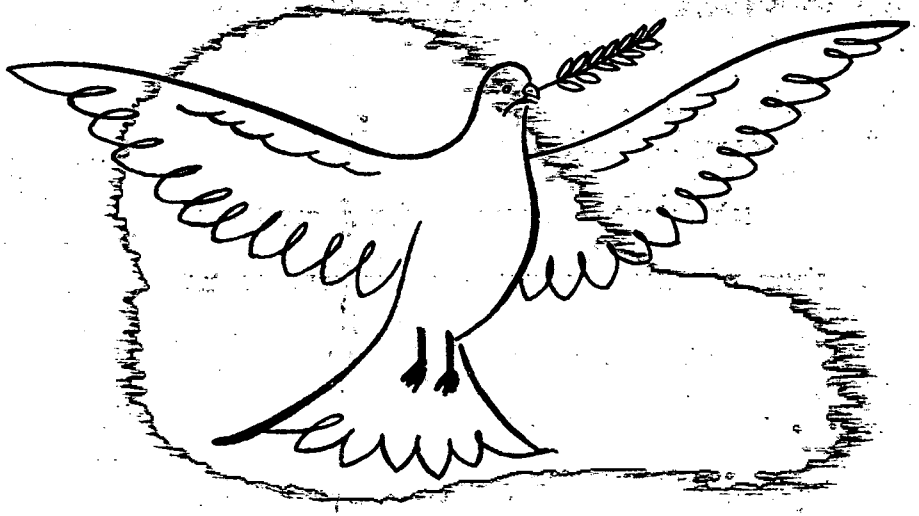
The State shall, in particular, direct its policy towards securing—

(a) that the citizens, men and women equally, have the right to an adequate means of livelihood ;

(b) that the ownership and control of the material resources of the community are so distributed as best to subserve the common good ;







Agriculture and Animal Husbandry

The State shall endeavour to organise agriculture and animal husbandry on modern and scientific lines and shall, in particular, take steps for preserving and improving the breeds, and prohibiting the slaughter, of cows and calves and other milch and draught cattle.

Protection of Monuments

It shall be the obligation of the State to protect every monument or place or object of artistic or historic interest declared by Parliament by law to be of national importance, from spoliation, disfigurement, destruction, removal, disposal or export, as the case may be.

Separation of Judiciary from Executive

The State shall take steps to separate the judiciary from the executive in the public services of the State.

International Peace and Security

The State shall endeavour to—

(a) promote international peace and security ;

(b) maintain just and honourable relations between nations ;

(c) foster respect for international law and treaty obligations in the dealings of organised peoples with one another ; and

(d) encourage settlement of international disputes by arbitration.

[Articles 37 to 51 from Part IV (Directive Principles of State Policy) of the Constitution of India.]

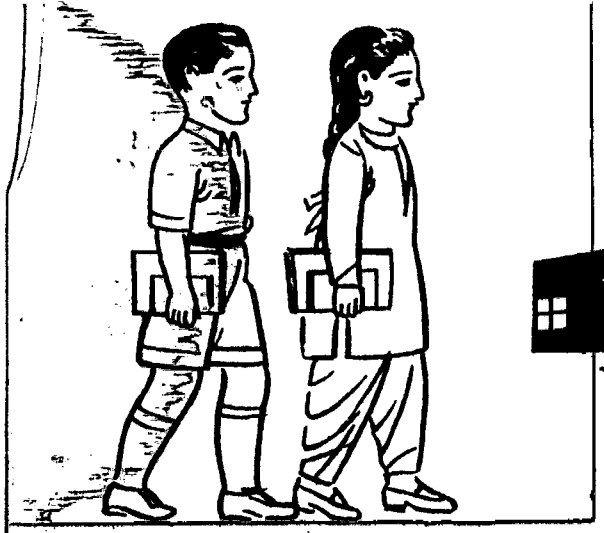
Published by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Govt. of India.
Printed by British India Press, (Props,–Leaders' Press Limited) Bombay.

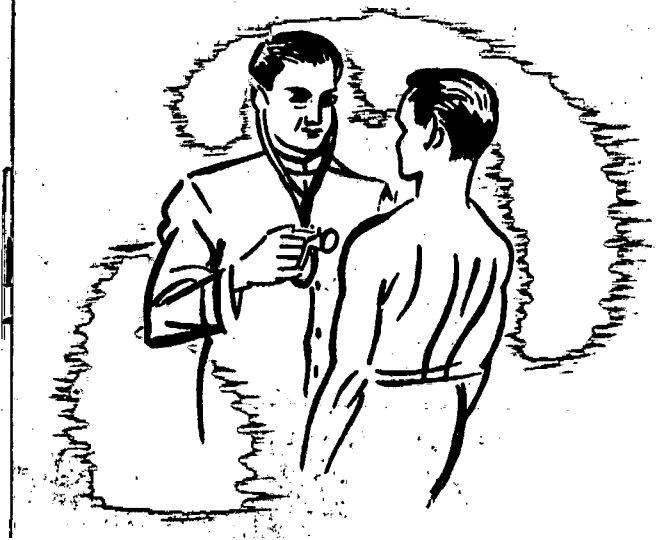


Free and Compulsory Education

The State shall endeavour to provide, within a period of ten years from the commencement of this Constitution, for free and compulsory education for all children until they complete the age of fourteen years.

Educational and Economic Interests of Weaker Sections

The State shall promote with special care the educational and economic interests of the weaker sections of the people, and, in particular, of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, and shall protect them from social injustice and all forms of exploitation.



Standard of Living, Nutrition and Health

The State shall regard the raising of the level of nutrition and the standard of living of its people and the improvement of public health as among its primary duties and, in particular, the State shall endeavour to bring about prohibition of the consumption except for medicinal purposes of intoxicating drinks and of drugs which are injurious to health.
